

$50 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, in the Holydays, Negre man

D. A. Z.,

without any provocation whatever. He is tolerably black, 52 or 53 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, very square built, limps a little in a walk, (occasioned, as he states, by the bite of a snake,) hesitates a little before a reply when spoken to, also turning his head a little on one side, and then talks quick, looking generally towards the ground. His clothing cannot be correctly described, but believe he wore away a black suit, with a black fur hat. Dazis an uncommon artful fellow, and is good at making out a good tale to excuse himself from a charge.

He was bought of the late Chancellor Johnson's estate in 1825, who had purchased him from the estate of Mr. Higgins, of Anne-Arundel county. He has a very general acquaintance, especially in and about Annapolis and Baltimore; has a brother named Sam, living with Mr. Oliver on Elk Ridge; at some of those places he will likely call on his way probably to Pennsylvania. I have reason to believe that he has obtained a forged pass of some sort, or has carried with him either carpenter's or shoemaker's tools as a passport, he being a pretty good rough workman he will likely attempt to pass himself off as free and a mechanic.

The above reward will be given if taken over twenty five miles from my residence, or twenty-five dollars for that distance or under, and secured in any jail so that I get him again.
